WELCOME BARRY HOROWITZ

This Shabbat morning after Adon Olam, February 4th, YINW is honored to welcome our next distinguished lecturer, Barry S. Horowitz, who will be speaking on the important topic, Resilient Children in a High-Risk World.

Barry S. Horowitz, a nationally recognized psychotherapist, lecturer, and author, is the Founder and Director of Courageous Journeys Therapeutic Services. The lecture series is sponsored generously by Leslie Friedlander and the Friedlander family, in loving memory of Suzanne Friedlander, Tzivyva bat Yosef HaKohen, a"h.

Mark Your Calendar

Come on out this Monday night, February 6th, at 8:00pm, YINW welcomes special guest lecturer, Dr. Yael Ziegler, who will speak on the topic, Mirror Characters in the Bible: Samson and David. ### Purim Mesibah Volunteers

With Purim less than 5 weeks away, and the script for the Purim Shpiel video complete, Trick One Productions will begin filming shortly. The video will make light of the MANY quirks of our wonderful shul, its members and, of course, our president, an easy target. Your cooperation and participation in the filming of the video will ensure that the video will be the success we anticipate it will be when we all view it on Purim night. All you need to do is make yourself available when/ if Jordan Hiller contacts you about participating in the film. To see past videos, go to Vimeo.com and search BKMZ.

Friday Night Chaburah

The Friday Night Chaburah will be at the Butler home, 936 Glenridge Avenue, at 8:30pm—note new time. The topic will be Counting on a Chazzan Who Doesn't Really Count.

Family Seudah Shlishit

Please join us for a special Family Seudah Shlishit, next Shabbat, February 11th at 5:00pm, following 4:30pm mincha. Bring your family and enjoy kid-friendly food, parsha trivia, charades games, great prizes, and lots of fun. If anyone would like to sponsor this Seudah Shlishit, please speak to Glenn Skolnick.

Yoga Night with the Sisterhood

Join the YINW Sisterhood for Yoga Night, led by certified yoga instructors, Amy Hiller and Miriam Abrahams, on Wednesday, February 15th at 8:00pm. ### Purim in February?

With Purim fast approaching, we ask that you take the time to look for any old childrens' Purim Costumes (in good condition) that you no longer need and donate them to the shul. We are collecting these costumes for a fundraiser for YINW's Youth Department. Please drop off all costumes at the Torczyner residence at 726 Gilbert Place. If you have any questions or would like to arrange for the costume(s) to be picked up, you can e-mail Elana Torczyner at mrstorcz@yahoo.com. Thanking you in advance!

Security Update

Calling All Leiners

Israel Update – Naot Kedumim

Just a reminder that this Wednesday is Tu B'Shvat.

Located halfway between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, near Modiin, Neot Kedumim is a non-profit 620-acre biblical reserve that won an Israel Prize in 1994 as a model of restoration ecology.

You can see plants and trees, water and agricultural installations as they were thousands of years ago, with special areas for the seven species of the Land of Israel - olives, wheat, barley, figs, pomegranates, dates and grapes.

Several hiking paths wind through hundreds of varieties of biblical and Talmudic plants; wild and domesticated animals; ancient and reconstructed olive and wine presses, threshing floors, cisterns and ritual baths.
