

Young Israel of North Woodmere and Nishmat's Miriam Glaubach Center Present

SCHOLARS-IN-RESIDENCE SHAYNA AND JUDAH GOLDBERG

Shabbat, February 6-7, 2009

Friday Night, February 6:

8:00 PM at YINW: Judah Goldberg – Evolution and the Nature of Faith

Shabbat Day, February 7:

After Tefilah at YINW: Shayna Goldberg – Inspirational Pragmatism: The Role of a Yoetzet Halacha

3:45PM at Yael Aspir, 917 Longacre Ave.: FOR WOMEN ONLY with Shayna Goldberg – Frequently Asked Questions and how their Answers can help make Your Life Easier

4:45PM at YINW: Mincha followed by Judah Goldberg – Death and Life in the Modern Hospital: Can Contemporary Bioethics and Traditional Judaism Find Common Ground?

Shayna Goldberg serves as a Yoetzet Halacha (halachic adviser in the area of women's health & halacha) for Congregation Ahavath Torah in Englewood, NJ and Congregation Rinat Yisrael in Teaneck NJ. She has taught and worked as a mashgicha ruchani at Stern Hebrew High School in Philadelphia and is currently teaching halacha at Ma'ayanot Yeshiva High School for Girls. She holds a B.A. from Yeshiva University's Stern College, an M.A. from its Azrieli Graduate School for Jewish Education, and a certificate from its Advanced Talmudic Studies Program for Women. She is a graduate of the Keren Ariel Yoatzot Halacha Program at Nishmat: The Jeanie Schottenstein Center for Advanced Torah Study for Women.

Judah Goldberg holds a B.A. from Yeshiva University and an M.D. and M.A. in Bioethics from the University of Pennsylvania. He studied for several years at Yeshivat Har Etzion in Alon Shevut, Israel and under its auspices received semikha from Rabbi Zalman Nechemiah Goldberg of Jerusalem. He is currently a second year resident in Emergency Medicine at New York Hospital Queens and serves on its Bioethics Committee.

